Comprehending the Issues with English Language

As we identified in the previous post there is only one language of God - Hebrew. All other languages are the result of Lucifer making his language as the counterfeit to God's language. Why is it that, just like the USA currency (the Petro Dollar) the currency of the world, the English language is also the language currency of the world. Think about that a moment.

In order to understand what scriptures, tell us, it is critical that we understand the individual words used to ensure we obtain the correct meaning of the scriptures. We have been taught the language used within the countries we live in plus the language of English. Why is this?

Well let me be the first to say that Hebrew is not the language of God. It is a language used by Moses to create the Torah because it was the language he was taught from birth. God spoke through thought. Think about that! When God created the Heavens and Earth it was through thought that this occurred. Angels were created and communicated with God through thought. How is this possible?

It is possible because in our supernatural state our minds are part of the mind of God. It is only in our fallen state that we have a mind separate from God and need language then to communicate. Therefore, it is only with rebirth (second birth unto Christ [salvation through Christ]) that we have a renewed mind. How do we know this? Let's go to scripture.

1 Corinthians 2:16 "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? but we have the mind of Christ."

Number 16:28 "And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for [I have] not [done them] of mine own mind."

Leviticus 24:12 "And they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be showed them."

Numbers 24:13 "If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do [either] good or bad of mine own mind; [but] what the LORD saith, that will I speak?"

Deuteronomy 18:6 "And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose;"

Deuteronomy 28:65 "And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:"

Deuteronomy 30:1 "And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call [them] to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,"

1 Samuel 2:35 "And I will raise me up a faithful priest, [that] shall do according to [that] which [is] in mine heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever."

1 Samuel 9:20 "And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom [is] all the desire of Israel? [Is it] not on thee, and on all thy father's house?"

Chronicles 22:7 "And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God:"

Chronicles 28:9 "And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever."

Nehemiah 4:6 "So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work."

Job 23:13 "But he [is] in one [mind], and who can turn him? and [what] his soul desireth, even [that] he doeth."

Job 34:33 "[Should it be] according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest."

Psalms 31:12 "I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel."

Proverbs 21:27 "The sacrifice of the wicked [is] abomination: how much more, [when] he bringeth it with a wicked mind?"

Isaiah 65:17 "For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind."

Jeremiah 3:16 "And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit [it]; neither shall [that] be done any more."

Jeremiah 15:1 "Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, [yet] my mind [could] not [be] toward this people: cast [them] out of my sight and let them go forth."

Jeremiah 19:5 "They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire [for] burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake [it], neither came [it] into my mind."

Jeremiah 32:35 "And they built the high places of Baal, which [are] in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through [the fire] unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin."

Jeremiah 44:21 "The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it [not] into his mind?"

Ezekiel 20:32 "And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone."

Ezekiel 23:17 "And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them."

Ezekiel 23:18 "So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister."

Ezekiel 23:22 "Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;"

Daniel 5:20 "But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:"

Habakkuk 1:11 "Then shall [his] mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, [imputing] this his power unto his god."

Matthew 22:37 "Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind."

Mark 5:15 "And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid."

Mark 12:30 "And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this [is] the first commandment."

Mark 14:72 "And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept."

From the above scripture, and you can research more and find more, we can clearly see that the language of God comes from His Mind. We have stated this not only in the four books contained in the God Is Government series but in blog posts that it is the connection of the heart brain that contains the words of God.

Hebrews 10:16-26 " 16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; 17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. 18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. 19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 And having an high priest over the house of God; 22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) 24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: 25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. 26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,"

Paul wrote in Romans 1:27-29 "27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. 28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,"

So, if we do not study the scriptures through the Mind of God and learn His words, we will interpret the scriptures through the languages of lucifer and only understand the counterfeit truth.

Now, let's get into the language part of this document.

We call the original language of God Hebrew. Why? Because it is the language used by Moses to write the words of God in the Law (Torah). What do we know about Hebrew? Can anyone state that they know the simple 22 letters of Hebrew and their meaning? Should not the most important language in the world be the one language or the second required language of every country?

Wikipedia tells us that the Hebrew alphabet has 22 letters. It does not have case. Five letters have different forms when used at the end of a word. Hebrew is written from right to left. Originally, the alphabet was an abjad consisting only of consonants, but is now considered an "impure abjad". As with other abjads, such as the Arabic alphabet, during its centuries-long use scribes devised means of indicating vowel sounds by separate vowel points, known in Hebrew as niqqud. In both biblical and rabbinic Hebrew, the letters ם ן ן ן ן can also function as matres lectionis, which is when certain consonants are used to indicate vowels. There is a trend in Modern Hebrew towards the use of matres lectionis to indicate vowels that have traditionally gone unwritten, a practice known as "full spelling".

The Yiddish alphabet, a modified version of the Hebrew alphabet used to write Yiddish, is a true alphabet, with all vowels rendered in the spelling, except in the case of inherited Hebrew words, which typically retain their Hebrew consonant-only spellings.

The Arabic and Hebrew alphabets have similarities because they are both derived from the Aramaic alphabet, which in turn derives either from paleo-Hebrew or the Phoenician alphabet, both being slight regional variations of the Proto-Canaanite alphabet used in ancient times to write the various Canaanite languages (including Hebrew, Moabite, Phoenician, Punic, et cetera).

The lineage of the Hebrew language is as follows:

Egyptian hieroglyphs

- Proto-Sinaitic script
- Phoenician alphabet
- Aramic alphabet
- Hebrew alphabet

It is assumed that Moses used the correct words from the Hebrew language for the Torah. It is also assumed that the Old Testament was written consistently with the Hebrew language to ensure continuity of meaning contained in the scripture. Scholars have been able to prove that meaning of words in Hebrew used in the construction of the Old Testament have consistent meaning. In other words, when the first use of a word in the Old Testament and the meaning used for that use is the same meaning throughout the Old Testament scripture. So, of the original canon (scrolls) the use of Hebrew text can be interpreted as having a single meaning for each word used.

The New Testament was written in Greek. Greek has been spoken in the Balkan peninsula since around the 3rd millennium BC, or possibly earlier. The earliest written evidence is a Linear B clay tablet found in Messenia that dates to between 1450 and 1350 BC, making Greek the world's oldest recorded living language. So, as we can see the Greek language is a derivative of the language from Hebrew lineage.

Let's stop here before we blow your mind. Given that God created us, and He speaks to us through His Mind to His Mind inside of us where did all the languages spoken in the whole WORLD come from? You got it lucifer? So, think about this a moment. Every language of the entire world was first spoken by lucifer.

Now let's get back to blowing our minds.

We stated in the opening of this blog post that the English language was the language currency of the world. Just as the cabal level of corruption is with using the USA Petro Dollar to control the world so is it that the English language is used as the same.

Ephesians 4:29-32 "29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: 32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Let us ask a question. How do you know if the words you speak fit into the verse above? We have been taught the English language and all its slang stuff (programmed) to not give a word used any thought before speaking. However, without knowing the word true meaning do you not think the words we use bring curses and grievance to the Holy Spirit? Well before you answer this question for yourselves let's look at the English language.

Wikipedia tells us that English is a West Germanic language that originated from Anglo-Frisian dialects brought to Britain in the mid-5th to 7th centuries AD by Anglo-Saxon migrants from what is now northwest Germany, southern Denmark and the Netherlands. The Anglo-Saxons settled in the British Isles from the mid-5th century and came to dominate the bulk of southern Great Britain. Their language, now called Old English, originated as a group of Anglo-Frisian dialects which were spoken, at least by the settlers, in England and southern and eastern Scotland in the early Middle Ages, displacing the Celtic languages (and, possibly, British Latin) that had previously been dominant. Old English reflected the varied origins of the Anglo-Saxon kingdoms established in different parts of Britain. The Late West Saxon dialect eventually became dominant. A significant subsequent influence on the shaping of Old English came from contact with the North Germanic languages spoken by the Scandinavian Vikings who conquered and colonized parts of Britain during the 8th and 9th centuries, which led to much lexical borrowing and grammatical simplification. The Anglian dialects had a greater influence on Middle English.

After the Norman conquest in 1066, Old English was replaced, for a time, by Anglo-Norman (also known as Anglo-Norman French) as the language of the upper classes. This is regarded as marking the end of the Old English or Anglo-Saxon era, as during this period the English language was heavily influenced by Anglo-Norman, developing into a phase known now as Middle English. The conquering Normans spoke a Romance langue d'oïl called Old Norman, which in Britain developed into Anglo-Norman. Many Norman and French loanwords entered the local language in this period, especially in vocabulary related to the church, the court system and the government. As Normans are descendants of Vikings who invaded France, Norman French was influenced by Old Norse, and many Norse loanwords in English came directly from French. Middle English was spoken to the late 15th century. The system of orthography that was established during the Middle English period is largely still in use today. Later changes in pronunciation, however, combined with the adoption of various foreign spellings, mean that the spelling of modern English words appears highly irregular.

Early Modern English – the language used by William Shakespeare – is dated from around 1500. It incorporated many Renaissance-era loans from Latin and Ancient Greek, as well as borrowings from other European languages, including French, German and Dutch. Significant pronunciation changes in this period included the ongoing Great Vowel Shift, which affected the qualities of most long vowels. Modern English proper, similar in most respects to that spoken today, was in place by the late 17th century.

English as we know it today came to be exported to other parts of the world through British colonization and is now the dominant language in Britain and Ireland, the United States and Canada, Australia, New Zealand and many smaller former colonies, as well as being widely spoken in India, parts of Africa, and elsewhere. Partially due to influence of the United States and its globalized efforts of commerce and technology, English took on the status of a global lingua franca in the second half of the 20th century. This is especially true in Europe, where English has largely taken over the former roles of French and (much earlier) Latin as a common language used to conduct business and diplomacy, share scientific and technological information, and otherwise communicate across national boundaries. The efforts of English-speaking Christian missionaries have resulted in English becoming a second language for many other groups.

Global variation among different English dialects and accents remains significant today. Scots, a form of English traditionally spoken in parts of Scotland and the north of Ireland, is sometimes treated as a separate language.

So, we find that the English language is the cesspool for all languages. In developing the English language, Lucifer and his counterfeit scholars created meanings on the English words that were not consistent with the root word in other languages by which the English word was derived. This, then, provided a language that humanity could use, not knowing the true root words the English words were derived from, to make the language a curse impacting our lives by the words we speak.

So, to understand that the translation of the ancient scriptures into English has caused us to not accept the English words as factual because of the proliferation of meanings. We must study scripture using all languages in order to understand the root meaning of the English word used.

Constantine and the Pope in their English translation was as much to deceive us from the truth than to translate the truth to us.

INFLUENCE BY GREEK PHILOSOPHERS OVER ENGLISH

Many of our history, language and other influences came from ancient philosophers that were able to sway the time with their beliefs. Have you ever considered the backgrounds of the people you listen to? You do know that person bias is contained with anyone speech. What do you think the ancient philosophers left us and that we use today? I think this may be mind blowing for you.

Let's go back in time and see what we can find.

Aristotle taught the ten categories of logic. Do you remember these from high school or even a college philosophy class? His writing along with those of Plato and Socrates when you examine the lives of them were solely based upon a life full of pain and trauma. In fact, if you did some good research, you would find that they were raped as children, took up the black arts later in life and actual participated in child trafficking. This was true for many of the Greek philosophers. We find the same in Anastasia. This is the reason why their writings are not through the anointing of God but through their penmanship of their pain and trauma.

What many of you do not understand is these philosophers and other parts they played in underground pedophilia networks that was created by another Greek Philosophers by the name of Demosthenes. Demosthenes, (born 384 bce, Athens [Greece]—died Oct. 12, 322, Calauria, Argolis), Athenian statesman, recognized as the greatest of ancient Greek orators, who roused Athens to oppose Philip of Macedon and, later, his son Alexander the Great.

The number 322 is on the insignia logo of Yale University Skull and Bones secret society. So, Demosthenes, the great orator in Hellenistic Greek History, just happens to be the first man in history to build the first underground child sex trafficking dumb. You can find this in the Oxford Dictionary of Greek Hellenistic History. Second to the serpent. The Yale Skulls and Bones God is a pedophile - Demosthenes.

Plato, Socrates, Aristotle and Dionysius Thrax (you get the terms syntax and anthrax) who gave us much of our English language. Remember, we have stated that you cannot interpret God through a fallen language of the serpent in what we call an adjective, noun or pronoun. English is the language of the serpent just like the USA Dollar is the currency of the world.

Aristotle created the paradigm of the term adjective. Adjective is broken down as "AD" and "JECTIVE". Jective means to jab or puncture. Adjective in the Greek and Cyprian language as the Cyprian term epitheto which means epithet. An epithet is a curse and an insult. Insult is where we get the Indian sandscript term of Sultan. So, Aristotle designed the paradigm of an adjective meaning to jab or puncture with an epithet (curse).

Plato along with Dionysius Thrax and the Platonic Philosophy created the paradigm of the term noun. Noun is interpreted in the Greek word Ousiastiko which means witch-core. Witch core is then interpreted in the Cyprian word nuon (that is the correct spelling). Nuon means the sweeping of a witch's broom. So, noun is connected to witch-core, the paradigm of dark thinking into NUON which means the transportation of witches via the witches' broom.

Socrates created the paradigm of the term pronoun. Pronoun is interpreted in the Greek and Cyprian Lexicon as the term antonymia which means a gram and a gon (Hexagram, Pentagon). Antonymia is interpreted in the Greek word antonym which means curse. Gram becomes the acronym foundation for grammar.

What we see is our entire western language has been infiltrated with curses through demonic influences.
