Jairus was a Jewish religious leader who worshiped God and taught God's Word to others. One day, terrible trouble came to Jairus.

His beloved daughter, only twelve years old, got sick. It seemed nobody could help her. It was a bad sickness. Jairus knew the girl was dying.

Only one person could help Jairus' daughter. Jairus set out to find Jesus and bring Him back to his house.

Jairus probably knew his religious friends did not approve of Jesus.

But Jairus didn't care. He had to get help quickly before his daughter died.

Jairus
found
Jesus
surrounded
by people.

He
kneeled
at Jesus'
feet.

"Come and lay your hands
on her
that she
may be
healed,
and she
will live."

Jesus went with Jairus. But they could not move quickly because of the huge crowd. One lady had been very sick for twelve long years.

She had gone to all the doctors (and spent all her money) without getting help. Oh, how she wanted to see Jesus!

What could the lady do?
"If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made
well," the lady muttered.

She inched her way toward Jesus. Then, stretching out her hand, she touched Jesus' robe.

A miracle! A MIRACLE! The
lady was healed.
Immediately!
Completely! She
knew she was well
and strong and whole. But then a voice spoke. "Who touched Me?"

Jesus asked.
Crowds had touched Him. But the lady who was healed knew He
wanted her to tell
Him about it.
Timidly, she told Him her whole story.

Just then, servants came from Jairus' house. Their faces probably told the sad story before they spoke. "Your daughter is dead!" they told Jairus.

Dead! It was too late. Perhaps, if that lady hadn't delayed things . . .

perhaps, if . . .

Dead! Jairus'
precious little
girl was gone.

When Jesus heard it, He answered,
"Do not be afraid;
only believe, and
she will be
made well."

How difficult it must have been
for Jairus to really believe Jesus.
His daughter
was dead.

At the house, everybody
wept and mourned
for the girl.

"She is not dead, but sleeping,"
Jesus told them. They laughed at Him. They knew the girl was dead.

Jesus put them all out, took the girl
by the hand and said,
"Little girl,
arise."

Jairus was there. His wife was there. Three of Jesus' disciples were there. They all heard Jesus' words. Would the little dead girl hear them, too?

The dead girl heard Jesus' command!

Her spirit returned, and she arose immediately.

Jesus had raised her from the dead.

The girl's parents were astonished.
Jesus told them to give the girl
something
to eat.

How happy they must have felt; how grateful to Jesus. His wonderful love and power brought their daughter back from death.

The Girl Who Lived Twice

A story from God's Word, the Bible,

is found in

Mark 5, Luke 8

"The entrance of Your Word gives light."

Psalm 119:130

The End

This Bible story tells us about our wonderful God who made us and who wants us to know Him.

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The punishment for sin is death, but God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and be punished for our sins. Then Jesus came back to life and went home to Heaven! If you believe in Jesus and ask Him to forgive your sins, He will do it! He will come and live in you now, and you will live with Him forever.

If you want to turn from your sins,
say this to God:

Dear God, I believe that Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so that I can have new life now, and one day go to be with You forever. Help me to live for You as Your child. Amen.
